

Anadolu Group Chairman Tuncay Özilhan, has been elected to The Foreign Investors Council of The Republic of Kazakhstan

Anadolu Group Chairman Tuncay Özilhan stated in his speech at the meeting of The Foreign Investors Council of The Republic of Kazakhstan that significant investment of his Group will continue with new bottling plant being built in Astana.

The Chairman of the Anadolu Group Tuncay Özilhan has joined The Foreign Investors Council of The Republic of Kazakhstan. Anadolu Group has been the first Turkish company to accomplish such an honor.

The Anadolu Beverage Group operates two significant companies in Kazakhstan, Coca-Cola İçecek and Anadolu Efes. Both companies have invested significantly in Kazakhstan since 1997.

At the council meeting, Mr. Özilhan reiterated the Group's commitment to Kazakhstan and outlined the details of the new Astana bottling plant, which represents an investment of over 80 million US Dollars. The state of art plant will contribute significantly to the local economy and will provide sustainable employment to the community.

In addition to the new plant, the Group will continue to invest in growing its beer and soft drink businesses in Kazakhstan.

About the Anadolu Group

Anadolu Group, one of the most well-established organisations in the Turkish business world, was set up by the Yazıcı and Özilhan families in 1950. The Group, which carried its existence into the future in the light of its vision of being a 'The star that links Anatolia to the world and the world to Anatolia', operates in 18 countries – including Turkey – from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with 80 companies, 61 production plants and close to 29 thousand employees.

The Anadolu Group continues its fast and healthy growth by creating added value for Turkey, with the partnerships it has established with the leading brands around the world, and its cooperation with multinational companies.
